

HANDLING HOMEWORK

Ellen Hansen, Park Hill High School,
Kansas City, MO

Jack Mueller, Ennis School District,
Ennis, MT

Ryan Schochenmaier, Flour Bluff ISD,
Corpus Christi, TX

2012 REMAST
Summer Conference

➤ Introductions

➤ Panel Questions

- To grade for completion or correctness
- Homework is what percentage of the grade
- Student Apathy about homework
- Homework in class/Missing homework
- Statement of advice for current/future teachers

➤ Things you would like to try

➤ Audience Questions

2012 REMAST
Summer Conference

Completion or Correction

- Do you grade homework for completion only or for correctness?
- If you grade for correctness, how do you handle your grading load? Do you select only a couple of problems or do you grade all of them?
- Do you let students grade their own or their neighbors?

2012 REMAST
Summer Conference

Percentage of grade

- What percentage of their entire grade is homework?
Have you had to make adjustments due to cheating?
- How do you justify the portion of the grade that is homework? Do you think that is preparing them for college?

2012 REMAST
Summer Conference

Student Apathy towards homework

➤ Do you have any tricks to getting apathetic students to do their homework?

2012 REMAST
Summer Conference

Homework in class/Missing homework

- Where/How do you post homework assignments?
Do you give them time in class to work on them?
- How do you deal with late/missing homework?

2012 REMAST
Summer Conference

Share one statement of advice for current/future teachers on classroom management.

Do you have an new idea that you plan to try in the near future to help improve your students performance on homework?

2012 REMAST
Summer Conference